

William D. Kirby, being sworn, affirms as follows -

In continuation - Did you not on the 8th of Nov. last see in the room of Mary the wife of Green Parton, a number of letters and some papers appertaining which you knew to belong to the same individual, before alluded to in other affidavits. Answer I did you ask me if you satisfied that he was then after now good Dr. you from all the circumstances of the affair do you I am and further this deponent saith not more to & subscribed the 12th Dec 1855 W. D. Kirby

Mrs Sarah Burgess being examined deponent sayeth that on the 8th night of November she heard an alarm over at Green Parton's and went over there she heard Mrs Parton acknowledging that a certain man had been there and that he had laid on the bed of the bed with her. What is the general opinion about the character of Mrs Parton about Chappell hill Answer the general opinion from all the circumstances of the night of the 8th Nov or that she is not dead quist did you ever see any thing suspicious of Mary Dr. Wiff except on the night of 8th Nov: Between the Winsby night previous to the 8th Nov I was at Mr Parton's in his sister Dulcinea's room. I saw the man alluded to on the night of the 8th was come out of Mary Parton's room into the room of Lucy Parton and after settling a settle he went at the skeleton door for admittance in to Mary's room which was opened and he entered and she saw no one of him the door being shut after him there being no light in the room and about q'ock at night and further this deponent saith not

Sarah L. Burgess